When Banjos is an outlaw, only outlaws have Banjos. oldwoodchuckb - Posted - 09/20/2009: 20:14:15 If you want a very large tab with enough space between the staves for notation, etc., email me (I can't attach items to the stuff I send through the hangout) and send it. To ensure that the voltage length is sufficient for adequate measures, I put the lines on paper in landscape mode. It usually comes with Rocket Science Banjo as well as special 7 stave per page tab paper. I wanted more empty space between the staves and used the inside spacing of the 8 stave per page music disc, then placed them on blank paper ---- this was back in the cuts and paste and run through the copier days. Eventually, I got smart and scanned them into a PSD file, and now my blank tab paper is all those beautiful crisp clean pages that come from our Brother laser printer. Of course, nowadays I tend to use less note anyway. Science Banjo - Advanced Clawhammer Techniques for beginners and long-term players.
